2.1. These Terms constitute a contract for services between the Employment Business and the Temporary Worker and they govern all Assignments undertaken by the Temporary Worker. However, no contract shall exist between the Employment Business and the Temporary Worker between Assignments.

2.2. For the avoidance of doubt, these Terms shall not give rise to a contract of employment between the Employment Business and the Temporary Worker. The Temporary Worker is engaged as a self-employed worker, although the Employment Business is required to make statutory deductions from the Temporary Worker's remuneration in accordance with clause 4.1.

2.3 No variation or alteration of these Terms shall be valid unless approved by a director of the Employment Business in writing.

3. ASSIGNMENTS

3.1 The Employment Business will endeavour to obtain suitable Assignments for the Temporary Worker to work in fields specified by the Temporary Worker on his/her application forms (updated as necessary). There is no charge for this work finding service although the Employment Business does, from time to time, provide services for which a charge is made. Details of these are available on request. Provision of work finding services is not conditional on use of any of the Employment Business' chargeable services.

3.2 The Temporary Worker acknowledges that the nature of temporary work means that there may be periods when no suitable work is available and agrees: that the suitability of the work to be offered shall be determined solely by the Employment Business; that the Employment Business shall incur no liability to the Temporary Worker should it fail to offer opportunities to work in the above category or in any other category; and that no contract shall exist between the Temporary Worker and the Employment Business during periods when the Temporary Worker is not working on an Assignment.

- 3.4 For the purpose of calculating the average number of weekly hours worked by the Temporary Worker on an Assignment, the start date for the relevant averaging period under the Working Time Regulations shall be the date on which the Temporary Worker commences the first Assignment.
- 3.5 The Temporary Worker shall not be obliged to accept any Assignment offered by the Employment Business
- 3.6 For the purpose of calculating the average number of weekly hours worked by the Temporary Worker on an Assignment, the start date for the relevant averaging period under the Working Time Regulations shall be the date on which the Temporary Worker commences the first Assignment.
- 3.7 The Temporary Worker may not under any circumstances introduce any other person to supply services in place of the Temporary Worker.

4 REMUNERATION

4.1 Unless otherwise agreed the Employment Business shall pay to the Temporary Worker remuneration calculated at the hourly rate as displayed in the Employment Business' pay rate schedules (available on request) Where such schedules indicate a range of hourly rates (the lower end of the range being the minimum hourly rate payable) the Employment Business will decide on the rate according to a range of factors. The actual rate will be notified on a per Assignment basis, for each hour worked during an Assignment (to the nearest quarter hour) to be paid weekly in arrears for all work satisfactorily performed, subject to PAYE, National Insurance and any other deductions which the Employment Business may be required by law to make.

4.2 Subject to any statutory entitlement under the relevant legislation, the Temporary Worker is not entitled to receive payment from the Employment Business or Clients for time not spent on Assignment, whether in respect of holidays, illness or absence for any other reason.

5 STATUTORY LEAVE

5.1 For the purposes of calculating entitlement to paid annual leave pursuant to Working Time Regulations 1998 under this clause, the leave year commences 1st April annually.

5.2 Under the Working Time Regulations 1998, the Temporary Worker is entitled to 4 weeks' paid leave per leave year. All entitlement to leave must be taken during the course of the leave year in which it accrues and none may be carried forward to the next year.

5.3 Entitlement to payment for leave accrues in proportion to the amount of time worked continuously by the Temporary Worker on Assignment during the leave year and is calculated according to the previous 12 weeks worked.

5.4 In the course of any assignment during the first leave year the Temporary Worker is entitled to request leave at the rate of one twelfth of his total holiday entitlement in each month of his leave year. Where the Temporary Worker wishes to take any leave to

Failure to submit a time sheet for hours worked may delay payment for those hours. Failure to co-operate in the Employment Business' timesheet process may constitute a breach of this contract for which damages might be claimed. For prompt payment Timesheets are to be in by Monday 12:00pm

7.2 For the avoidance of doubt and for the purposes of the Working Time Regulations, the Temporary Worker's working time shall only consist of those periods during which he is carrying out activities or duties for the Client as part of the Assignment.
